

GJ - Irish in the Junior Classes

Refresh, renew and reinvigorate what you do

Join us this Summer for a course that will refresh, renew and reinvigorate your techniques and approaches to teaching Irish in the JUNIOR classes.

We explore class lessons, tasks, ideas and fun activities that will build your childrens' competence and confidence in using Irish across the ten themes and all four strands. We itemise techniques, approaches and methodologies; provide a bountiful harvest of activities and games; identify solid active resources and deliver what you need to get them chatting, communicating and living the language..... and also we provide a FREE one year subscription to the excellent site www.anmuinteoir.ie ^[1] (worth €19.99) where plenty of excellent material awaits to additionally support your Irish language lessons. This subscription runs to June 30th 2018. 'Bígí linn!' in Autumn/ Winter 2017/ 2018.

Across this broad, in-depth and comprehensive course, we cover all four themes of listening, speaking, reading and writing, along with planning & assessment. Highlights to include:

- Aspects of effective teaching in Irish
- Emphasis on communication: what are the characteristics of an effective language lesson
- How to engineer and create a positive language environment
- Teaching strategies and approaches across the four strands
- Language learning where the focus is on the learner
- Listening, speaking, reading and writing activities
- Language functions and language games
- Skill development
- Phonics and its importance in reading & writing
- Drama and its centrality to language learning
- Games to inspire and drive fun language acquisition and practice
- Lesson planning
- Lesson structures
- Sample lessons
- Songs, poems and rhymes
- Phrases for parents to foster Irish at home
- Sample lessons from the Seideán Sí programme
- Internet links to teaching resources and further information
- Sample material from various publishers
- A 68 page guide to available classroom Irish support books, cds, posters, DVDs etc.
- Assessment procedures

..... and much more.

NOTE: the course is presented at times through Irish, without translation, and at other times, some of the readings on second language teaching practice is in English. However, the level of Irish used should be accessible to every primary teacher.

The on-line format of this course enables you to study at a time and place that best suits your own needs.

You can access your course anytime until March 31st 2018.

Within this highly interactive web based course, a dynamic learning experience awaits, where you can interact with your fellow course participants through the in-course chat forums and communication tools provided by the CPD College learning system.

Our friendly and knowledgeable tutors actively support each course, providing expert interaction, guidance and feedback for all participants on chat questions and assignments which call for critical reflection, self-analysis and a reasoned response. Please note that forum assignments may be submitted in English or Irish.

On successful completion of your course, you can download and print off your CPD record and Certificate of Completion.

We look forward to welcoming you to your course.
