

HIS - Time Traveller

Approaching History as an historian.

History is all around us. There is history on every horizon. How well do you exploit local History? Take a trip back in time with us.... well, at least a course back in time! Exploring the past, our course is loaded with exciting approaches, ideas and resources to bring back to the classroom in September to stimulate, charge and support your 'trips in History', as children work as junior historians, uncovering the secrets of the past.

This self-paced on-line course explores the subject of History in the primary school curriculum as an attempt to reconstruct and interpret the past through working as an historian. Participants will appreciate that successful teachers of history use a broad range of classroom approaches and methodologies and will engage with aspects of all strands of the prescribed history curriculum.

NOTE:

The on-line format of this course enables you to study at a time and place that best suits your own needs.

You can access your course anytime until March 31st 2018.

Within this highly interactive web based course, a dynamic learning experience awaits, where you can interact with your fellow course participants through the in-course chat forums and communication tools provided by the CPD College learning system.

Our friendly and knowledgeable tutors actively support each course, providing expert interaction, guidance and feedback for all participants on chat questions and assignments which call for critical reflection, self-analysis and a reasoned response.

On successful completion of your course, you can download and print off your CPD record and Certificate of Completion.

We look forward to welcoming you to your course.

Learning outcomes

This course aims to:

- Build each teacher's capacity to teach history even better.
- Detail a broad and balanced understanding of local, Irish and international history through the study of a range of peoples, events and periods.
- Set out the content of the strands & strand units of the primary school history curriculum.
- Underline that it is while studying the strand units that we must engender and develop in our pupils the historical investigation skills concerned with time and chronology, cause and effect, change and continuity, the use of evidence, synthesis, communication and empathy.
- Itemise the varied but requisite approaches and methodologies to successfully plan, organise and complete units of work in a fun, lively and engaging way.
- Supply a wealth of digital interactive resources, ideas and materials.
- Have teachers reflect their current approach to the teaching of History, with a view to refining and building on current practice.

Modules

01 - To impart an understanding of History as being an attempt to reconstruct and interpret the past through working as an historian.

02 - To introduce participants to the broad range of classroom approaches and methodologies used by the successful history teacher.

03 - To familiarize participants with the content areas of Local studies, Family and Story.

04 - To explore with participants the area of Early peoples and Ancient Societies.

05 - To explore the concepts of continuity and change over time, to look at eras of change and conflict and to look at life, society, work and culture in the past.

Course quick links

 Register your interest

 Enrol

 Download fact-sheet

 To learning centre

Course cost: €89.00

Format: On-line

Course duration: 20 hours

"I thoroughly enjoyed this course. Especially the video links for practical tips and ideas which I look forward to using in the classroom. Found it so interesting and helpful. Clearly an awful lot of hard work, time and effort went into the structure and content of the course. Thank you very much." - Emma, 2016

Source URL: <http://cpdcollege.com/content/his-time-traveller>